FANATIC PRO CAMPS

FBC Fanatic Pro Camps with Tom Brendt & Yoli de Brendt

You can find windsurfing camps with professional windsurfers every where in the world – but which one is right for you? At FBC we have gone one step further. Forget about the Pro's, we give you the guy who trains them – Tom Brendt.

Trainer of Gollito, husband and trainer of freestyle star Yoli de Brendt, passionate photographer and a highly skilled windsurfer himself – what else could you need?

Tom and Yoli are a real dream-team. They will change the way you windsurf and the way you feel about windsurfing ... FOREVER. This we can guarantee, because we have tested it ourselves.

Come and learn with us during one of the five Fanatic Pro Camps in 2012. We have the right camp for you. No matter what level you are and what you want to achieve. There is a champion in every one of us!
