THE SPOT

The center is on the beach just meters away from the water. You will be very well looked after here the small team pride themselves on giving a friendly and personal service. The owner, Jean Seb Lavocat will inspire you with his incredible energy and passion for both the spot, which he discovered 15 years ago, and the sports offered here. Surfing features highly here too, and Jean Seb is dedicated to the younger generation. He has formed a surfing association (SMX Waterboys and Watergirls) and is a creator of young surf champions all over the Caribbean. You can also enjoy the new Fanatic SUP on offer at the center and finally walk on water! Professional kitesurfing instruction is also offered, but kitesurfing is prohibited in Gallion Bay. Instead guests are taken to "Little Kay", a sandy spit protected from waves and offering standing areas with no rocks or current, for guaranteed progress.
